

BACKGROUNDER (August 2020)

Cory Yedlosky, et al. v. Pennsylvania State Corrections Officers Association, Local SCI-Huntingdon, et al.

THE EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The Fairness Center represents three Pennsylvania corrections officers in their lawsuit against the Pennsylvania State Corrections Officers Association, Local SCI-Huntingdon (“Local”), former Local officials Bryan Peroni and Douglas Clark in their official and personal capacities, and the Pennsylvania State Corrections Officers Association (“PSCOA”). The Plaintiffs allege that the unions have breached their membership contract with them by failing to enforce the unions’ own rules related to the handling of union funds, including dues and fees taken from corrections officers.

The plaintiff corrections officers were forced to file this lawsuit to address the unions’ failure to follow its own rules and to discover what happened to approximately $20,000 in union dues.

THE CASE LOGISTICS

Plaintiffs

Cory Yedlosky
William Weyandt
Chris Taylor

Defendants

Pennsylvania State Corrections Officers Association, Local SCI-Huntingdon
Douglas Clark, in his official and personal capacities
Bryan Peroni, in his official and personal capacities
Pennsylvania State Corrections Officers Association

Court

Court of Common Pleas of Pennsylvania Huntingdon County

Judge

Honorable George Zanic

Relief Sought

An order requiring an accounting to determine whether certain union expenditures were made in violation of the unions' rules and repayment of any improperly expended funds to the Local and/or Plaintiffs.

Date Filed

January 17, 2020

THE LEGAL TEAM

Nathan J. McGrath is President & General Counsel at the Fairness Center. Nathan oversees the firm's general operations and litigation to advance the Fairness Center's clients' best interests. Before joining the Fairness Center, Nathan was a staff attorney with a national nonprofit legal services organization, where he developed a national practice focused on constitutional, labor, and administrative law. Nathan began his legal career as an associate attorney with a general practice firm in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Justin T. Miller serves as Litigation Counsel at the Fairness Center. His work focuses on representing clients in state and federal courts, and before administrative boards. Prior to joining the Fairness Center, Justin was a prosecutor for the State Attorney's Office in Florida. He was lead counsel in over 80 jury trials and prosecuted a wide array of felony offenses before accepting an assignment to the special victims unit.

Danielle R.A. Susanj serves as Senior Litigation Counsel at the Fairness Center, representing clients in state and federal courts and before administrative boards. Prior to joining the Fairness Center, Danielle practiced law as a litigation associate at a large international firm in Washington, D.C., and as a litigator in central Pennsylvania, representing clients in federal district and appellate courts and the United States Supreme Court.