

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF PENNSYLVANIA
LANCASTER COUNTY

JANE LADLEY and CHRISTOPHER MEIER,

Plaintiffs,

v.

PENNSYLVANIA STATE EDUCATION ASSOCIATION,

Defendant.

Case No. CI-14-08552

Judge Leonard G. Brown, III

CONSENT ORDER

AND NOW, this 23rd day of May, 2022, upon Stipulation of the above-captioned parties, through their record counsel, it is hereby ORDERED as follows:

1. Judgment is entered in favor of Plaintiffs and against Defendant in that Defendant is enjoined from any application of Pennsylvania's Fair Share Fee Law, 71 P.S. § 575, against Plaintiffs as said law is unconstitutional under the Supreme Court's decision in Janus v. AFSCME, Council 31, 138 S. Ct. 2448 (2018).
2. Defendant shall pay to Plaintiffs' counsel $20,000.00 in full satisfaction of any claim to attorneys' fees and costs.
3. This consent order is a final decree and constitutes the complete and entire award of relief upon the Plaintiffs' and Defendant's claims, except that the parties specifically agree that an additional consent order may be filed by Plaintiffs, entered by the Court, enforced and immediately executed upon filing by Plaintiffs, in the event Defendant fails to pay Plaintiffs' counsel $20,000.00 within 30 days of the date of this order.

BY THE COURT:

Hon. Leonard G. Brown, III
